

Consultancy opportunities – Bermuda

The Attorney General’s Chambers within the Ministry of Legal Affairs, Government of Bermuda, is seeking to engage—

- a senior legislative drafting consultant to work in Bermuda for a period of six months with the possibility of extension for a further six months, and/or
- one or more senior drafters to work long distance—on projects including casino gaming, betting, and procurement.

The consultant(s) will work under the direction of the Chief Parliamentary Counsel.

The consultancy fee is approximately $160,000 annually or $88 per hour (the Bermuda dollar is pegged to the US dollar). Consultants working in Bermuda are entitled to paid public holidays but no other paid leave. Flights to and from Bermuda will be covered at the beginning and end of the contract; the consultant will be responsible for all other expenses including accommodation, taxes, compulsory health insurance, etc.

Parliamentary counsel with at least ten years’ experience drafting legislation in a Commonwealth drafting office are invited to submit a CV, and indication of any areas of expertise, by email to the Chief Parliamentary Counsel, Cathryn Balfour Swain at cbalfourswain@gov.bm.

Please use this same email address if you would like further information.

The closing date for applications is 9th February 2018.
