

CAYMAN ISLANDS GOVERNMENT

The Cayman Islands Government is currently inviting applications for the following post within the Law Reform Commission:

Senior Legislative Counsel (Law Reform)

CI$91,992 - CI$114,900 per annum

In conjunction with the Director, the Senior Legislative Counsel will be responsible for reviewing the laws of the Cayman Islands with a view to their systematic development and reform. This will include the modification, elimination, repeal, simplification and modernization of current laws, as well as the development of new areas of legislation.

The Senior Legislative Counsel will formulate policy, conduct proactive and reactive research, prepare scoping papers, issues papers, discussion papers and develop final reports on matters reviewed by the Law Reform Commission. They will also be required to contribute to consultative meetings (with representatives of the private sector, Ministers and Senior Civil Servants) and draft clear, unambiguous and relevant legislation (both primary and secondary).

Applicant must:

- be a qualified Solicitor, Barrister or Attorney-at-Law in a Commonwealth jurisdiction;
- possess a Diploma or Master of Laws in legislative drafting;
- have an ability to undertake deep research;
- have an ability to draft major and complex legislation and other legal documents;
- be able to demonstrate accurate use of the English language;
- have an ability to assimilate complex facts quickly; and
- be able to exercise sound judgement.

Applicants must have:

- at least seven (7) years of post-graduate experience, five (5) of which must have been spent in a law reform or legislative drafting office of a Government Department, Statutory Authority or other public body; and
- relevant experience in formulating policy, conducting research, writing consultation papers, developing recommendations for law reform and drafting relevant legislation.

Depending on the successful candidate, the appointment would be on contract for two (2) years in the first instance, with the option to seek renewal. Leave entitlement will be twenty five (25) working days per annum and benefits include air passages, baggage/freight and relocation allowances, a non-contributory Government Pension Scheme and medical and dental coverage. Please note that no income tax is payable in the Cayman Islands (CI$1.00 = US$ 1.20).

A detailed job description, information on benefits and a Government Application Form are available at: www.recruitment.gov.ky

Please submit your application form together with any additional supporting documentation to: Mark Harrison, HR Manager, Portfolio of Legal Affairs, 4th Floor, Government Administration Building, 133 Elgin Avenue, P.O. Box 136, Grand Cayman, KY1-9000. Telephone: 244 2336. Email: mark.harrison@gov.ky

Deadline for receipt of applications: Monday 28th May, 2018