

Government of Singapore

Legislation Division, Attorney-General's Chambers

Invitation to tender for appointment of consultant to provide legislative drafting services for new Copyright Act

The Legislation Division of the Attorney-General's Chambers, Singapore (Legislation Division) invites tender offers from experienced legislative drafters in common law countries with at least 10-years drafting experience to draft a new Copyright Act. The estimated commencement date for the services is 1 November 2017 and the services must be completed by 22 January 2018.

This is an open tender for services. The invitation to tender documents can be downloaded from <https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B0nN5ypLBcLUSjU0UHRtMENoR00>.

All tender offers must be submitted electronically by e-mail to Legislation.sg@gmail.com no later than 18 October 2017, 4.00 pm (Singapore time) (tender closing deadline).

Tender offers that —

- are submitted after the tender closing deadline; or
 - do not comply with the instructions in the invitation to tender documents,
- will be rejected.

Tender offers will be evaluated based on value for money, background and academic qualification, legislative drafting experience and relevant domain expertise. Legislation Division is not obliged to accept the lowest value or any tender offer. All received tender offers are non-returnable. Legislation Division will not be responsible for the cost in preparing the tender offers.

Mrs Owi Beng Ki
Chief Legislative Counsel
Legislation Division
Attorney-General's Chambers
Government of Singapore