

Nomination for CALC Council: Australasia and the Pacific region

Yen Mascarenhas

Nominated by Geoff Lawn (CALC President)

Seconded by John Mark Keyes (CALC Treasurer)

Thank you to Geoff Lawn for nominating me to represent the Australasia and the Pacific region as a member of the CALC Council and to John Mark Keyes for seconding that nomination.

It is a particular honour to accept this nomination as I am not a legislative drafter and I believe there have not been any non-drafters appointed to the CALC Council in previous years. It is a very exciting prospect to be a part of CALC as it broadens its reach to the wider (but no less important) aspect of legislative editing.

I worked in legal publishing for 10 years before I joined the Parliamentary Counsel's Office of Western Australia four years ago. As a member of CALC, I have edited articles for The Loophole and presented in the inaugural CALC webinar for legislative editors and translators. As a CALC Council member I hope to further encourage the sharing of knowledge among those in supporting roles within the realm of legislative drafting.
